I've got an idea that the American Citizen knows a good thing when he sees it.

Some folks say that's only my own fool notion about it, but I think the sees it.

think I'm right.
I'm a-goin' to try to prove that I'm right, and that's why I'm mak-Pm right, and that's why rm mak-ing this offer.

I've been selling about the best whiskey that ever passed your lips and charging $2.85 a gallon

My customers said it was worth every cent of $3.50, and I knew that was so before they told me.

I call this whiskey "Old Mont Day," after myself, because I'm proud of it.

I'm going to give you a chance to try this whiskey at my expense, and if you don't like it, you don't have to buy it.

Just cut out this advertisement, and sign your name and address.

Just cut out this advertisement, and sign your name and address on the lines at the bottom, and mail to me with $2.85.

I'll send the whiskey—four full quarts—to you by express prepaid. You try it—try a good lot of it—and if it's not right in every way, send the balance back, and I'll send you your $2.85, and I'll never murmur or ask a question.

In addition to this I'll send you as a present, a full pint flask of my own special "Very Old Stock," worth 75 cents of any man's good so you see this advertisement is So you see this advertisement is worth just 75 cents to you, and you can't even run a chance if you want to, because I'm offering to take the whiskey back if it don't suit you to a "F" take the whiskey block if it don't suit you to a "T."

Of course, I'll not send you a free pint with your second order. Couldn't afford that at all, as I'm selling you $3.25 whiskey for $2.85.

But it's free to you with your first order.

order.

If I'm right about you folks If I'm right about you folks knowing a good thing when you see it, I'll get a barrel of orders within a couple of days. If the other folks are right, and you don't take advantage of this big special offer, I'll not be out much in money, and I'll have a bit more experience.

But I DO think that you'll use this ad, and I think you'll use it N-O-W.

And your address here.... Now tuck in that $2.85 and mail or, make it $5.00 even and Pll ship 2 full gallons, in glass jugs, and the free pifft to boot.

Valuables Found on Him Corresponded With Those Taken

From Passengers.

Baltimore, Md., February 21.—F. A. Becker was arrested near Altamont, W. Va., yesterday in connection with the robbory of the Pullman car passengers on the New York and St. Louis express of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. The man had $133.37 in money, four watches, said to correspond with those taken from passengers, and two recolvers. He was ledged in jail at Keyser, W. Va. The suspect claimed that another man gave him the money and other valuables found on him. He was taken by a Baltimore and Ohio policeman at a water station a short distance east of Altamont. He had just alighted from an eastbound freight train, According to information received at the executive offices of the Baltimore and Ohio here, the bandit secured $170 in cash, a check for $50 and five watches, valued at about $200.

Among the robbor's victims and their losses were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lawrence, of Hamlin, N. C., watch worth $25 and a fountain pen.

ABCRET Woman Beautiful.)

Many women regularly visit the beauty specialist to have their wrinkles troned out with the help of hot applications, old creams and massage. Most of us realize that there comes a time when no amount of persuasion of his sort will avail. This process of "wrinkle removing" is wrong in principle. Both the hot water and the massaging tend to expand and loosen the skin, besides softening the muscular foundation.

The very opposite result should be simed at. The tissue should be strengthened at home by dissolving one ounce saxolite in one-half pint witch hazel. Use as a wash lotton. The effect is really marvelous. Tell the druggist-you want (the powdered saxolite, which signs and fountain pen.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., February 21.—The North Carolina State Board of Health's appointment of Dr. J. J. L. McCullers as superintendent of health for Wake county, in spite of the opposition of Wake county commissioners, is sustained by the Supreme Court, McCullers vs. Commissioners of Wake, McCullers vs. Commissioners of Wake. However, the court leaves to the discretion of the commissioners the scaling of fees that the State board prescribed for its appointer, tals leaving a "sone of contention" for the right to continue. There were opinions delivered to-day in sixteen cases from the First and Second Districts, as follows:

The North Carolina Forestry Association this afternoon elected E. B.
Wright, of Boardman, as president, retaining State Ferester J. S. Holmes as secretary. Resolutions were adopted atrongly indorsing a State-wide nofence law that will take hogs and cattile out of the forest; urging State legislation that will put this State on such a forestry protection basis as, to procure Federal aid, which exacts a paid fire marshall service among other things; for a State system of fire proteution by a technical non-partisan board; indorsing legislation by Constress appropriating $86,600 for combatting chestnut blight, and pladging the association to the greatest possiolic effort improcepting the spread of this bilght.

ole effort Inspreyenting the spread of this bilght.

Governor Kitchin, after reading the answer of Senator F. M. Simmons to his charges against him, in opening his campaign for the Simmons seat in the United States Senate, declared that neither Simmons nor his defenders can deny a single charge as to the Senator's record and changes of cpinion as to issues. He says columns of "collateral matter" are being issued, with the hope of covering the facts he has charged, but that his statements in his Kitchin Club speech will stand every test and remain unshaken to the end.

There was an amendment for the stand every test and remain unshaken to the end.

There was an amendment for the charter of the Hilderbrand-Crater Company, Greensbore, to-day that changes the name to the Greensbore News Company. This is the company that publishes the Greensbore Daily News, and in which W. A. Hilderbrand and E. B. Jeffress are the principal stockholders. The charter shows that they own 149 shares each, and that there is only one other share outstanding, that being held by Mr. Mc-Knight, of Greensbore.

W. W. Barbersof North Wilkesbore,

Knight, of Greenshoro,

W. W. Barberzof North Wilkesboro, made a plead with Governor Kitchin for a pardon or commutation of sentence for D. O. Absher, a young white man of Wilkes county, who is serving a seven-years' sentence for manslaughter, in that he killed a mannamed Brown in 1994. After the killing and before he was sentenced Absher was married to a worthy young woman, and there are two children.
The plea is that there has already been sufficient punishment, he having served since 1916. The trial judge and others recommend that the Governor extend executive elemency.
